Split Second (Pivot Point #2) Author: Kasie West. CHAPTER 1. Addie: Meet me at my house later. If I'm not already dead. My car sat on the far side of the parking lot, and I couldn't get to it fast enough. The day had been horrible, matching perfectly with the rest of my first week back to school since the whole Duke's-a-huge-jerk-who-had ...

Split Second in the sequel to Pivot Point (I would definitely recommend reading Pivot Point first). Split Second alternates between Addie and Laila's points of view, and did a marvelous job of keeping me interested in the story from both angles. Laila and Addie were raised in The Compound, where paranormals live (people with enhanced mental ...

Pivot points may appear anywhere in the story timeline, some as early as the first chapter of a book or the first 10 minutes into a movie. Others may appear only at the final pages or at the end of the movie. The events surrounding the pivot point may be somewhat irrelevant to the main plot, and may even last only a split second, but they are crucial for the plot's continuation.
